By Jake

A crazy night

Snowmen at night go to Cannon Mountain so they can go skiing with their friends. They are all prepared with their skis and helmets.

They go up the chairlift all the way to the tippy top and then race down through the glades as fast as they can.

OPEN
green glade

But when they came out of the glades, they are going so fast that they crash into the lodge.

One of them says, “Why don’t we get some hot chocolate and French fries?”

After another ride up the chair lift to Gary's, they begin to make a race course. They ZOOM down the race course in 48 seconds flat, how about that?!

As one of the snow men was going down the course he saw a big, huge type of truck. One snowman from behind shouts "Groomer" but it is too late. Smash!

The groomer was hungry for more snowman! It was coming for them! It chased them all the way down the mountain.